Neutral observers here regarded the situation along the Hungarian-Yugoslav frontier as "dangerous."
Four former opponents of the regime of King Alexander were freed today from the government ban against them. They are Dr. Koroshetz, former Premier of Yugoslavia; Dr. Kulovec, Dr. Natkace, and Dr. Obrievic.

Other kidnappers have gone to the electric chair, and still others will go.

Yugoslavs Seek to Try All Suspects in Assassination

By International News Service

Belgrade, Oct. 19.—Yugoslavia has decided to request the extradition of all suspects arrested in connection with the assassination of King Alexander, it was learned in League of Nations circles today.

The Yugoslavian government, it was said, is anxious to place the entire group on trial at Zagreb.

Germany Takes Lead in New European War Crisis

By D. R. GELEH

International News Service Staff Correspondent

Belgrade, Oct. 19.—The mortar that sealed King Alexander's tomb had hardly dried today when rulers and ministers plunged into their favorite sport of juggling international power.

Hermann Goering, Prussian chancellor under Hitler, hoisted large after months of comparative retirement. He is calling on Dowager Queen Marie this afternoon, then conferring with Premier Milekovic and Foreign Minister Bogoljub Vitchich.

King Carol, after Yugoslavia's day of deep mourning ended at midnight, called a conference of all the members of the Little Entente and signatories of the Balkan pact, except Yugoslavia.

Tension between Yugoslavia and Hungary due to the Yugoslavians' belief that Hungary harbored Croatian terrorists, was discussed.

Goering's flight from Berlin and his activities here have led to the conviction in informed circles that he possesses broad authority to act on behalf of Hitler.

Germany is known to be wooing Yugoslavia away from French influence following the assassination of Foreign Minister Louis Barthou, who sought to weld a chain around Germany to keep the Reich within bounds.

President Albert Lebrun, before he left, covered with the foreign ministers of Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Rumania, together with Prince Paul, chief regent of Yugoslavia, and King Carol.

The episode of intrigues that began immediately after the funeral continued today. The Duke of Kent, Princess Marina of Greece, his fiancée; President Lebrun, Prince Nicholas of Rumania and Prince Armand of Yugoslavia were among those who happened to attend the funeral of former President Raymond Poincaré of France in Paris tomorrow.

MOTHER TO WIN GLORIA, SAYS LADY FURNESS

By Universal Service

New York, Oct. 19.—Expressing optimism over the outcome of the trial for custody of little Gloria Vanderbilt, four million dollar heiress, Lady Furness said she believed the rights of motherhood would triumph.

The former Consuela Morgan, twin sister of Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, disclosed she had not met or spoken with her own mother, Mrs. Laura Kilpatrick Morgan, since her arrival here from Europe last week. She said:

"I have not yet seen my mother to talk with her. I will not. I am a mother myself, you know, and I cannot understand my own mother. I am sticking by Gloria. She certainly is entitled to her own baby. I have the utmost faith in justice."

A touch of drama came with the sudden exit of Mrs. Vanderbilt from the courtroom while Harry Wright, her butler, was on the witness stand.

Mrs. Vanderbilt rushed into the foyer, weeping uncontrollably. Lady Furness hurried after her and tried to dry her tears. After 30 minutes of weeping she returned to the courtroom.

Mrs. Whitney did not justify. Testimony was given by Wright, a witness for Mrs. Vanderbilt, and by Thomas B. Gilchrist, co-guardian of little Gloria's estate, called by Mrs. Whitney's counsel.

PETER AS KING GIVES UP TOYS

(By Associated Press)

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 19.—King Peter gave his toys to his brothers today.

The 13-year-old monarch, having recovered from the first shock of his father's assassination, began his reign by turning his playthings over to Tomislav and Andrew who dined with him.

Peter the Second now is first to enter seriously his royal tasks under the regency.

The King took an early morning ride with his brothers through neighboring woods. He was mounted on a big brown spotted horse which Alexander gave him on his tenth birthday to replace the fat old pony on which he learned to ride.

He then returned to the palace where he received a number of Yugoslav delegations who came here for his father's funeral. A patriarchal, bearded man and a wrinkled old woman bowed before the new King, kissing him on the forehead and wishing him long life.

After receiving other visitors Peter began his lessons under his tutor, C. C. Parrot, who returned with him from London. Peter's favorite subjects are spelling, composition, history and drawing. He dislikes mathematics, botany and geography.

After finishing his lessons Peter spent some time with his grandfather, whom he tried to please.

Thanks to the skill of Boston surgeons, little Carole Conway of Allston will grow up to be a healthy—and a beautiful—woman, in spite of terrible burns which nearly cost her life. CAROLE CONWAY

DOCTOR TELLS NEW TREATMENT LEAVES NO SCAR

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE
Before eminent exponents of surgery, a Commonwealth avenue doctor today offered a living exhibit of the progress of science in the treatment of burns.
Five-year-old Carole Conway of Beacon street, Boston, whose life was despaired of little more than a year ago when half her body was burned while she was playing with matches, stood before them as living proof of Dr. Robert H. Aldrich's new theory.
Dr. Aldrich, member of the Harvard Medical School faculty and attached to the out-patient staff of City Hospital, through his work on little Carole has completely disproved the old theory that a third body area burn must be fatal. And he has gone further than that with this youngster, revealing that skin grafting can prevent the ravaging scars left by charred skin.
All the experimental work on the child was done in a three-room apartment to which Carole was taken from Lowell where the accident took place.
Dr. V. H. Kavanian, Commonwealth avenue plastic surgeon, noted for his pioneering work of men's faces and bodies during the war, assisted Dr. Aldrich in this remarkable undertaking that proved so successful for the youngster.

Doctor Tells How He Treated Burns

With the five-year-old child between them, the two doctors laid bare the findings of their work at a clinical discussion of the progress of American College of Surgeons today.
Dr. Aldrich explained how he treated the burned part of the child while Dr. Kavanian discussed the plastic work he did to destroy the web that was tightening her right arm to her right chest.
Dr. Aldrich, who began his work on the treatment of burns at Johns Hopkins in 1928, continuing in Boston four years ago, maintaining that a burn is an open surgical lesion and that "infection and death from burns are due to an invasion through the burned area into the body by the streptococcus."
At his suite of offices at 520 Commonwealth avenue, where little Carole resided on an operating table, Dr. Aldrich explained the entire theory to a Boston American reporter today.
"Carole was four when she was burned. The accident happened in August, 1928. She was playing one day when her dad came home and hung his coat nearby and left the room. The little girl stuck her hand into the pocket of his coat, taking out some matches.
"She struck one against her chest and as it burned her finger, she dropped it. It set the sheet afire and then the blaze caught her nightgown. Her mother was downstairs and didn't hear her screams. Her father was in the bathroom and he didn't hear.
"By the time the parents reached her, half of the body area had been burned.
"The child was taken to St. John's Hospital, Lowell. I was called in on the sixth day. Again she was called on the 11th day in Lowell when the child was dying.

Who Has More Courage? Woman and Man Compared PRIZES OFFERED FOR LETTERS DESCRIBING HEROISM

Are women more courageous than men?
When danger hovers . . . when the shadow of death falls across a man and a woman . . . when the ship catches fire . . . when the plane starts to hurtle to earth . . . when the car speeds towards the open door . . .
Who is the braver—the man or the woman?
Shulan Graham, Boston Evening American staff writer, brought the question up recently. Her answer is that the woman in time of peril displays the greater courage. She mentioned the Morro Castle tragedy—and she told the story of Mrs. Amelia Toner, 27, who alone, before she had time to summon help, brought her baby into the world, then went forth with it seeking aid.
What do you think?
The Boston Evening American offers $25 in prizes for the best letters on the subject. Give your opinion, state your reasons interestingly and briefly, and relate a true incident to support your opinion.
Address your letter to the Courage Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston. The prizes are $10 for the best letter, $5 for second best, and $1 each for the next ten best.

BLAMES YOUTH WOMAN SOUGHT ANNULMENT

The "childhood sweetheart" of his 20-year-old wife is the father of that wife's unborn child, William T. Nicholson, 74, partner in a May-December elopement of last March, charged today.
His accusation came in a legal document filed in answer to the annulment petition of the wife. She is the former Hazel E. Allen of East Boston one time state ward.
Hazel, the husband alleges, left him right after their wedding. She never came back except when she wanted money, he said.
And the fact of the matter is "she has haunted me," he further deposed.
The original suit and its answer are in the files of Suffolk Probate Court.
Not to Be Mother, Girl Declares
The girl entered her petition a month ago. She wanted her freedom so that she could marry Harold Waterman, 21, of Hingham.
She charged that love never was a factor in the match with Nicholson, that his threats to send her to Sherborn and her boy friend to jail were what influenced her.
The allegations that she is an expectant mother, Mrs. Nicholson branded as false.
But she did say that she would marry the "boyhood sweetheart" just as soon as she was free.
The husband has children living in Providence and a grown grandchild in Boston. The couple eloped to Killings, Ct., last March 16.

MADLINE SLADE

ESCAPE FOILED BY ICY SEA WAVES

The cold harbor waters and his own misadventures today thwarted Ronald Talbot's escape from the house of correction at Deer Island.
Talbot, who is 25 and four months left to serve of a six months' sentence, was leaving from the early morning checkup. Guards searched the island and notified shore police.
The prisoner was found an hour later huddled behind the municipal pumping station on the ocean side of the island. He had been in the water and jail officers declared the prisoner believed he was swimming across Shirley Gut. Resisting his error, he turned back to the island.

Fairhaven, Oct. 18—A two-month-old, pink-cheeked and blue-eyed baby girl is lying in a little crib in an improvised nursery of the Fairhaven board of health waiting for someone to claim her.
The baby was left a month ago in the "new days," but the mother failed to return.

CHILDREN GET LOST IN NEW LOCALITY

Moving day for the Reillys of Roxbury resulted in two harrowing experiences for the youngest Reillys, but being of hardy stock they were in good health today despite a night in the open.
Mamma Reilly suffered the blow, just staying at home.
Mrs. Lena Reilly moved yesterday from Denison street in Roxbury to Copeland street in Roxbury and being engaged late in the afternoon, in the task of settling the new home sent Alice, 8, and Paul, 2½, out to play.
In the new neighborhood they became first confused, then separated, then lost. When darkness fell the police began a search, cruisers were notified by radio and beat officers were given descriptions.
Paul was found about midnight. Patrolman Thomas J. Sullivan found him toddling along Elm Hill avenue apparently unconcerned by the lateness of the hour. He was rushed home to Mamma Reilly, who felt immediately 50 per cent better.
It was not until 6 o'clock this morning that Alice was found, however. Patrolman Clark Adair and Walter Bird, in a patrol car, found her sleeping in the doorway of the telephone exchange at Patten and Waverly streets.

Leading weavers had big stocks of raw wool, and no orders. To save expensive factory layoffs they made us this offer: "We'll deliver at cost, if you contract to keep our looms busy until regular orders start coming through". We jumped at the deal—but we're sorry to say it didn't last long. Congress started talking about a 30 hour week. Orders again started rushing through, at higher prices. And our "party" was over! That's why we have only a limited number of these money-savers. Today, they start on their merry way, at $25 with two trousers! ★ ★ So if you've that "new suit feeling"—and a tender regard for your pocketbook—treat yourself to one of these thoroughbreds, and save as much as $10. This is the week to do it!

POLICE HIT IN DESHLER CASE

The state's case and the state's witnesses were assailed in Middlesex superior court today by Joseph P. Walsh, defense counsel, in his final argument at trial of James Deshler, accused of the payroll hold-up murder of Adolph Sommers, aged Cambridge inventor.

Walsh told the jury that Deshler, Arthur Herman of the Boston police "led" to bolster the government's case, and that the testimony of Capt. Charles J. Van Amburgh, state police firearms expert, was "that of a charlatan." He said: "God help the Commonwealth with men of that caliber in its employ."

The attorney attacked the identifications made by Arthur Noyes and Hans Blumberg, Sommer employee. The case is expected to reach the jury tonight.

Jesuit Warns Rich to Share Profits

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Edmund A. Walsh, prominent Jesuit, warned the rich today to share profits "more equitably" or their wealth will be seized.

Dr. Walsh, vice-president of Georgetown University, told a student assembly.

The new conception of social justice now maturing in the minds of men will increasingly demand a more equitable distribution of the fruits of industry. The net increment, which we call profit, resulting as it does from a joint action must be so spread as to promote the common good of society and not be selfishly monopolized by one of the partners."

B. U. Dance Tonight
Boston University will run its first social affair of the season tonight when the Catholic Clubs sponsor their annual dance at the University Club. Anne M. Harrigan of Medford heads the committee.

Bets Favor Mollisons in Australian Air Race

By International News Service

Melbourne Airport, England, Oct. 19.—"Jim and Amy" Mollison, due to take off first in tomorrow's air race to Melbourne, also took the lead today in betting odds.

One to twelve were the odds quoted on the famous pair who flew the Atlantic together.

Two American-guided planes brought odds of one to thirty-three. These were the ships carrying Col. Roscoe Turner and Clyde Pangborn, and Jacqueline Cochran.

Twenty-one planes are due to start at 6:30 tomorrow morning. All but one were ready in feverish haste, motors had been checked and rechecked, every bolt, every wire tested, until the machines were practically in perfect condition for the take-off.

PILOTS REST
Pilot, instead of working on their machines, spent most of the day resting, storing up stamina for the bitter fight of 11,000 miles over mountains, deserts, and seas, for a total pot of $75,000 and a lot of glory for themselves and their nations.

Ken Waller of England had no rest today, however. The wheels and propellers of his De Havilland Comet were damaged when they skidded a hundred yards in landing yesterday, and repairs had to be rushed. It was expected, however, that all would be in readiness for tomorrow.

Turner and Pangborn drew second starting place. Miss Cochran starts ninth, and the other American entrants, John Wright and John Poland, take off just after her.

MELBOURNE LAST
Each machine will start down the runway 45 seconds after its predecessor. Thus only 15 minutes will elapse, barring accidents, between the time the Mollisons hop and the last starter is in the air. Last to go will be young Charles Melrose of South Australia. One of the favorites in the race, Melrose nonchalantly broke the record for the Australia-to-England flight when he came here to enter the race.

RECORD CROWD AT FOOD FAIR

If the demonstrations of cooking and similar features to be seen at the Boston Food Fair in the Mechanics Building draws as large an attendance today as it did yesterday, according to Clarence King, one of the directors, the fair will probably break all attendance records.

Yesterday the number of people, mostly women, who saw the exhibits, broke all existing records for a second day of a food fair, he said.

NEW STORMS MENACE COAST

(By Associated Press)
Los Angeles, Oct. 19.—Storm clouds hung threateningly over southern California today as officials blamed the terrible rain of the last two days for seven deaths and property loss estimated at more than $250,000.
Only one of the deaths was directly attributable to the storm. Seven-year-old Donald Butterworth of Los Angeles was swept into a flooded storm drain and buried in mud at the outlet. The other six deaths were in automobile accidents on slippery streets.
One person was reported missing and another was near death. Monterey and the neighboring La Cresencia area, scenes of the disastrous New Year's day flood which took more than 40 lives, were the greatest sufferers. Flooded waters swept down burned-over hillsides and poured out of canyons into the residential areas.
You can see Barbara Hooters daily from 8 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. at the new first floor on the fourth floor of the R. H. White Co.

Harvard Men to Go Boom

The booming of cannon will be heard in Soldiers Field when Harvard's artillery men crouch over their strange looking instruments and knock over toy houses hundreds of feet away.
The four cannon, the invention of General Harry G. Bishop, are mounted on an iron base and have regulation panoramic sights, worm gear arrangements for elevation and angle of sight.
They will be used by the department of military science to give students actual experience in the use of artillery.

DEATH TRACED TO AUTO SLEEP

Michael Buckley, 55, of Wunker Hill street, Charlestown, was burned to death early today in an automobile parked on Tudor Wharf, off Warren street, Charlestown.
Fire department officials expressed the belief that Buckley climbed into the car for a smoke and a nap and that his cigarette started the flames when he fell asleep. The car was the property of the J. J. Hennen Motor Company of Rutherford avenue.
Buckley was alive when firemen reached the scene, but died at Haymarket relief station. Identification was established by a longshoreman's union card which escaped the flames, and it was later confirmed by relatives.

SORROWING GIRL SEEKS MISSING PET

Buddy, injured Monday, vanished. Perhaps he is dead. Perhaps some one is nursing him. Mary Ellen Edd, 15, of North Cambridge, would like to know what happened to him. Buddy, a thoroughbred Spitz, was presented to Mary by an uncle, now dead. It is known an auto struck the dog Monday, since when he has not been seen.

Dog Vanishes After Being Injured by Auto

Perhaps Buddy crawled away to hide and die.
Perhaps he is alive and in the hands of some nursing him to recovery.
Mary Ellen Edd wants to know: Buddy is her dog.
Mary is 15; her home is at 2331 Massachusetts avenue, North Cambridge; she is a student at St. John's High School.
Buddy is a thoroughbred, pure white Spitz with big brown eyes, last gift of Mary's uncle, a world war veteran now dead.
The dog was struck by an automobile Monday night and vanished. Mary penned the following appeal for information about Buddy to the Boston Evening American:
"I am writing these few lines to ask you if you would kindly help me to find my dog Buddy. He was injured by an automobile on Massachusetts avenue, North Cambridge, opposite a gas station, on Monday night, and about five minutes after disappearing. Bleeding a little from the mouth, he went in the direction of Hingham and vanished.
I am anxious to know if he is dead or alive and I would appreciate hearing from the person who finds his body or is taking care of him, or from anyone who saw the injured dog.
"He is well known and answers to the name of Buddy. He is a thoroughbred German Spitz, pure white, delicate featured, large, with large brown eyes, I am sending you a picture of him.
"I hope you can find him for me as he was the last gift of my uncle, a World War veteran, who went away, and is very dear to the family, especially to my father and mother."

NEW DEAL FOES ON INCREASE

By International News Service.
New York, Oct. 19.—Results of the new Literary Digest poll made public today reveal that 17 states show a majority opposed to President Roosevelt's "new deal" policy.
A nationwide checkup of 45,000 ballots, sent by the name, were polled in the Digest's first survey last spring, showed 50.97 per cent of the ballots for and 49.03 against the new deal.
Last spring, the magazine officials announced, the same people voted 49.03 per cent in favor of the new deal. At that time only one state—Delaware—failed to give the administration a majority.
This time Delaware reported 50 per cent favorable, while the states showing a majority unfavorable are Arizona, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont and Wyoming.

Some spectators, men and women, horror-stricken, left the theater, but presently the curtain rose again and the show went on.
So it is with life. Individuals that make up the human race fall, as do the leaves from the forest trees. We "fall," but "the show goes on."
It is hard for each of us to believe that after his turn has come, everything will go on, exactly as before.
The important question is, are we only falling leaves that fall and are forgotten, like forest leaves? Or, is there some merciful hand that picks up the human dead leaves and takes them elsewhere to be happy forever?

THOUSANDS THROG FUNERAL MASS FOR J. J. PHELAN

Men and women from all walks of life today paid a final tribute to James J. Phelan, prominent Catholic layman and philanthropist, at a solemn requiem high mass in the Immaculate Conception Church, Harrison avenue and East Concord street, South End.

At least 2000 persons filled the church to overflowing and 2000 more, unable to gain admittance, shivered in prayer outside the church.

Inside the church were leaders in civic and religious life of the city, state and nation, with the Very Rev. Bishop Francis J. Spellman, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, Newton, presiding. Fifty visiting priests from all parts of the state knelt within the chancel railing.

THE FUNERAL PROCESSION
The funeral procession formed at the Phelan residence, 11 Chelsea road, Brighton, shortly after 10 o'clock and proceeded under police escort for 30 minutes. More than 100 police officers, under supervision of Deputy Superintendent James McDevitt, were on duty in front of the church.

Mrs. Frederick W. Massfield, widow of the deceased, led the cortege to the church, and joined the funeral cortege to the church.

A mass of those attending the services were United States Senator David I. Walsh, former Governor Alvan T. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller, former Mayor Malcolm B. Nichols and John F. Fitzgerald. The Rev. Louis J. Gallagher, president of Boston College, was celebrant of the mass. He was assisted by the Rev. John T. Coughlin of St. Alden's Church, Brookline, as deacon, and the Rev. Thomas A. Fay of St. Ignace chapel, Boston College, as sub-deacon.

The master of ceremonies was the Rev. Daniel Sullivan of the Immaculate Conception Church. A delegation of Sisters of Notre Dame and Sisters of Charity, the latter from the Home of Desolate Catholic Children, attended the funeral.

HONORARY BEARERS
The honorary bearers were Senator David I. Walsh, E. H. Brown, Percy W. Brown, Paul F. Clark, B. Preston Clark, Henry B. Dwyer, James S. Dunne, Walter M. Evans, P. Dewey Everett, Paul E. Fitzgerald, Edward M. Gallagher and Edward L. Gray.

Chancellor A. Hight, Ralph Hornbourn, William C. Hotchkiss, Edward N. Hutton, Jr., Edward V. Jaeger, Byron W. Kinsley, John J. Kinsley, Louis E. Kinsley, Maurice J. Lacer, Dr. P. Howard Lacer, Judge Edward L. Logan, Charles

T. Lovering, Mathey Lutz, George H. Lyman, Alfred R. Meyer, Frank C. Nichols, W. David Owen, John W. Prentiss, A. C. Raftery, George A. Rich, James L. Richards, Walter H. Russell, Henry B. Sawyer, Herbert C. Steier, Paul B. Skinner, Julia Michael H. Sullivan, James H. Wainwright, C. P. Waller and Lathrop Wainwright.

ACTIVE BEARERS
The active bearers were Wendell Edmonds, T. J. Fisher, Henry H. Hower, Cornelius Kelly, Fred J. Murphy, Morgan J. O'Brien, F. A. O'Connell, Joseph H. O'Neil, Frederick E. Shaw, Percy R. Todd and Mary Sinclair Wolfe of Newton.

Whelan's mass was sung. Francis Cronin was organist. He was joined by Joseph Ecker, baritone. Miss Josephine Elbert, soprano. Mrs. Marie Murray, contralto, and John Shugness, baritone.

ORATION
At the elevation of the mass, Ecker sang "Pie Jesu" and at the conclusion of the service the choir sang "Agnus Dei." Bishop Spellman, after a brief exhortation, blessed the body as it lay in a marble casket and placed it in a coffin, pronouncing a final blessing with the Latin words "Requiescat in pace" or "Rest in peace."

Following the service the cortege moved to St. Joseph's cemetery, West Roxbury, where interment took place in the family lot.

Jewry to Launch Charity Campaign
The 1934-35 campaign of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies will be inaugurated Sunday, when 1200 guests will attend dinner in the Hotel Statler at 6:30.

Louis E. Kirschen, president of the organization, will preside while Dr. Samuel H. Hays, president of the central conference of American Rabbis, will be the principal speaker.

Rev. Melnitz to Preach
At the Bona Rosa service at St. Mary's Church, North End, at 8 o'clock, Louis E. Kirschen, president of the organization, will be the principal speaker.

Throngs Mourn Boston Philanthropist

Crowds of silent onlookers lined Harrison avenue today as the body of the late James J. Phelan, banker and philanthropist, was borne from the Church of the Immaculate Conception where funeral services were held. Heads bared, city and state officials stood on the church steps awaiting the slow march of pallbearers to the hearse. A special detail of traffic police halted automobile travel while the procession to the cemetery formed. (Picture by Boston Evening American Staff Photographer.)

$10,000 MONTH FIREMEN SAVE 7 IN QUINCY

By International News Service
Quincy, Pa., Oct. 10.—William Cox, Wright, internationally known tennis player, and his bride, the former Charlotte Kelley Doran, one of the richest girls in the world, today were enroute to Honolulu on their honeymoon.

Only 25 members of the immediate family were present at the "Woodcrest" partial home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John T. Doran, widow of Dr. John T. Doran, founder of the Campbell Soap Company.

The bride, her three sisters and their brother are the eventual heirs to the $10,000,000 fortune left by their father. Until they inherit the entire estate, each of the sisters receives an income of $10,000 monthly, while their brother receives $20,000 every month.

Girl Attacker Jailed

William Porter, 42, of West Dedham street, South End, was sentenced today to eight years in state prison by Judge Louis S. Cox after he pleaded guilty to charge involving a seven-year-old

An alert neighbor made possible the rescue of seven unconscious children early today, when Quincy firemen used ladders to bring them down from their second-story sleeping quarters on Willard street, Quincy.

Mrs. Mary Valle of Phillips street, Quincy, happened to look across her back yard toward the neighboring house and noticed that the top floor rooms were filled with smoke.

She summoned the fire department, and then dashed across the yard to the house and roused Mrs. Margaret Smith, the mother of the children, who was asleep on the ground floor.

Together, they tried to get up the stairs to the sleeping children, but were forced back by the heavy smoke. Firemen arrived almost at once, placed ladders against the upstairs windows, and brought the children out. Every one of them had to be revived.

The fire swept up the front stairway, and burst into smoldering flame on the second floor. The damage, confined to the hall, was estimated at about $400. The family returned to the house to continue its interrupted sleep.

A TIP TO PONTIAC OWNERS

Don't wait until the last bird has flown south before you think of getting your Pontiac in condition. Winter has a way of catching you when you least expect it.

Give your Pontiac a full Winter check-up of Eveready Prestone 225. Then let Old Man Winter do his worst. You're safe right through to Spring, protected against both freeze-up and rust. There is no danger of Eveready Prestone boiling off.

Your dealer has a chart that shows you how little it costs to have Eveready Prestone protection. It's approved by the makers of Pontiac and all other cars. And backed by National Carbon Company's guarantee. It's all ANTI-FREEZE... no water. Don't confuse with glycerine or alcohol.

Based on a twenty-year average, freezing weather reaches Boston about October 25th. PLAY SAFE THIS WINTER! Put Eveready Prestone in TO-DAY.

Think of it! A five dollar bottle right in the heart of the downtown shopping center. At only $2.49 a quart. With the custom-tinting American car money. Available, too, in practically every auto service station. You are invited to visit here with Barbara Hays at any time.

Autumn Fruits and Vegetables Are Plentiful

From Martha Lee's Friday Morning Broadcast Over Station WJAB

Autumn vegetables and fruits are crowding the markets, and it is time for the cook to take advantage of the season's offerings. Pumpkins, squash, cabbage, cauliflower, brussels sprouts, carrots and beets, apples and grapes—they are piled high into attractive displays. Great is the supply from nearby farms, some to be used at the present time, the rest to be stored away for use during the winter months.

Hubbard squash, the hard, winter variety which has a firm, sweet flesh, is selling at 25 cents a pound. Pumpkins vary in size, from the small ones to those that are large and plump. Marrow is an unusual, native vegetable.

very delicious baked, with the addition of a cream or cheese or tomato sauce.

A delicacy appearing on the market is trout, sold at 25¢ a pound. The most is very delicate and tender, resembling that of chicken. The legs can either be baked in milk and cream, or dipped in a batter and fried. It is especially popular with small bones, but especially when the fish is small.

Severed fish is a little higher in price this week-end because it is scarce—50¢ a pound. Cod and haddock are still selling at the same price. A fresh shrimp is 25¢ a pound. This shrimp shell fish is used in a great deal in Southern cooking.

Why not try a Shrimp Creole sometime, at one of your parties? It is an excellent suggestion as it can be made and served in large quantities very easily. Oysters are 70¢ a quart and clams 50¢ a quart.

LAMB IS CHEAPER

An offer of interest is genuine 1934 spring legs of lamb, either whole or half, selling at the unusually low price of 1¢ a pound, at the present time. Lamb is selling this week-end at 15¢. You may have your choice of turkey from Vermont or Middleboro. They are both selling at 40¢ a pound. If you must have turkey this early in the season.

The fish markets still report excellent values in this food item. Very highly recommended are trout at 25¢ a pound, striped bass at 25¢ a pound, and red snapper at 25¢ a pound. This latter is a large fish, golden red in color, which comes from the Gulf of Mexico. It is rather unusual to find it here. It can be bought sliced and is

CURLEY'S SWING WEST WINS THOUSANDS OF G. O. P. VOTES

By Frank Reilly

North Adams, Oct. 19.—A definite shift of thousands of voters from Republicanism to Roosevelt Democracy and the New Deal seemed in progress in western Massachusetts today.

Former Mayor James M. Curley, Roosevelt candidate for governor, was hailed by huge throngs in every community through which he passed today as he completed his "Victory Parade" in Berkshire, Franklin and Hampshire counties.

Addressing a gathering in Charlie Mont he said:

"While I was confident that I would carry western Massachusetts by a substantial majority on November 6, I must confess that I was not prepared for the character of opposition and the enthusiasm of the voters, Republican and Democratic alike, who met me in every community which I have visited thus far."

SCORES OF FLEDGES

"To say that I am amazed at the scores of pledges of support which have come to me from prominent Republicans of this section of the Commonwealth during the past 36 hours would be to put it mildly. Frankly I am bewildered."

"I know, of course, of the many benefits which had come to the working women and men of this section during the past 18 months, but I did not know that the leaders of our beloved President in his half of those who most work for a living were so generally appreciated."

"I am informed by my Republican friends that as a result of their support I will carry western Massachusetts by a vote of 2 to 1, and that 160,000 votes will give me a vote of 7 to 1."

"There is only one issue involved in this campaign and that is work and wages. At a time like this, when millions of Americans are compelled to accept public charity and when a host of weary fathers and heart-broken mothers are on the verge of despair because their children are undernourished and impoverished (clashed against the child laborer's strike, we cannot become involved in a discussion of personalities."

"I solemnly swear that Mr. Bacon and his cohorts think of James M. Curley. The people want to know where they are going to get off the welfare rolls and back to payrolls."

WANT NEW DEAL

"The people of Massachusetts want a New Deal at once. They want a man at the state House who will support President Roosevelt and who will work for their best interests. I am convinced that I will carry Massachusetts by a majority of at least 50,000 votes on November 6."

The Curley Victory Parade was held this town and adjacent towns during the early part of the day.

"Kitten Fluff" is a hat so utterly right, and young and smart, that it goes right on looking better than anything else with wools, tweeds and knitted things. Fuzzy like kitten's fluff, it folds up, tucks in a week-end bag. There is a saucy feather in the crown, and the brim can be worn turned up or down, as you please. In lovely warm Fall tones.

SPEAKING OF NEWS: Jim Browning says he will win in two straight falls when he meets Ed Don George in a return bout at the Garden a week from tonight. In their last tussle, Browning counted with the first fall, and later lost the match when he suffered a back injury during a toss from the ring.

George and Browning's fight was the main attraction of the night. The bout was scheduled for 10 o'clock.

It is believed that Browning will be able to get the best of the fight. The bout is expected to be a close one.

MONEY-SAVING NEWS FOR PIPE SMOKERS

ALWAYS we have heard from pipe smokers in praise of Edgeworth quality. Now we are hearing about Edgeworth smokers who give us the remarkable money-saving news that they get an hour's smoking from one pipeful. One man (G. M. Booth of Calgary, Canada) made it an hour and ten minutes.

So, we have been doing some testing and some inquiring and we find that these Edgeworth enthusiasts have been telling us the truth—the whole truth and nothing else but.

We find that it's no trick at all to get fifty minutes with an average size pipeful of Edgeworth. In fact, reports are so convincing that we begin to believe that Edgeworth must be the champion long-distance pipe smoking tobacco of the entire high grade tobacco world. We are delighted—and we take pleasure in handing the thrifty news on to all you pipe smokers.

Your own experience must be your guide—but if, like most of us, you are watching expenses these days with a couple of eagle eyes, you will find that a very pleasant way to keep down tobacco bills is to smoke Edgeworth. Think of it! Economy with pleasure! That's news! No reason now to ruin your good disposition with low grade, cheap tobacco you don't like. You can save without suffering. Try it. See for yourself that it's true. Buy a 15-cent tin of Edgeworth and enjoy an hour a pipeful.

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE—There is a perfectly good reason why Edgeworth burns so much longer in your pipe. The reason is the extra Edgeworth process used in its preparation. It is a technical matter too complicated to describe here. We mention it so that you will know that this important feature of Edgeworth is based on a definite fact. We do not claim that all pipe smokers can get an hour a pipeful from Edgeworth. That is because smoking methods differ. But any pipe smoker can get more hours of smoking out of Edgeworth than from fast burning tobaccos. Larus & Son Co., Richmond, Virginia.

Lou Little Favors Pitt Panthers Over Minnesota in Title Clash

By Lou Little
Head Coach, Columbia University
New York, Oct. 18.—All eyes will be centered on the Minnesota-Pitt game tomorrow.
It is evident that we have so early in the season a national championship elimination game.
The winner of this contest will be, without a doubt, pretty well accepted as the outstanding team for 1934-35.
I believe Minnesota would have been a whole lot better prepared if it had played a game last week. I do not see where a squad that is well equipped with reserves should want to have a lay-off of a week.

It is my experience that when the players do not have a real game to look forward to on Saturday, the spirit is lacking and their practice during the week is very slowly.
LOU PICKS HOLY CROSS
Pitt, by playing last Saturday and defeating Southern California, is going to give that squad a good bit of confidence, and the experience is obtained in such a game is going to help a great deal.

Minnesota may have the edge as to reserves and possibly power. In spite of these facts, I am going to string along with Pittsburgh and I expect to see it return the winner.
The Colgate-Ohio State game is going to be a contest somewhat similar to the Minnesota-Pitt game. There is a difference in the strength of Ohio State and Colgate. It will be in Ohio State's shock troops.
We will have a chance to see just how strong Holy Cross really is in the Harvard game. The real game have been going along winning without a great deal of trouble, and of course have been pointing for Eddie Casey's Harvard team.
The boys from Cambridge will hardly have sufficient power and reserves to stop this good Holy Cross team.

Notre Dame's win over Purdue was just what Blaine Laiden needed to restore the confidence in his football squad. Carnegie Tech is expected to be a very hard team to beat over that of a year ago.
BROWN TO BEAT YALE
Ship Middie has been putting the pressure on his St. Mary's team all the way across the country. Their losing to Nevada brought to earth a very much over-confident team.
Fordham is going to find a much harder team to dispose of tomorrow than it had played the Wake Forest a week ago.
Brown seems to be improving each week.
Yale has been under pressure for the past few weeks. It has suffered injuries to some outstanding players.
It would not surprise me to see Brown win the game.

TWO SESSIONS FOR BRUINS

By International News Service
Quebec, Que., Oct. 18.—Beginning today, the Boston Bruins hockey team will work out twice a day during their training period here preparatory to the National Hockey League campaign which begins next month.
Frank Patrick, new manager of the team, said he would first try to get the men used to handling the puck and perfect their stick work, and would then get them started at heavy work.
Patrick also predicted the Bruins would be a greatly improved team when they began their regular season. He said he expected great things especially from Johnny Gagnon, formerly with the Montreal Canadiens, and Jean Pius, formerly with the Rangers.

"THE BIG KNOCK-OVER"

By DASHIELL HAMMETT
The author of "THE THIN MAN"

A masterpiece of melodrama which shows you gangsters, gun molls and the underworld. As they really are! Dashiell Hammett knows the underworld better than any other novelist in America. In "The Big Knock-over," he shows you how the biggest bank robbery of them all is planned and executed with ruthless ferocity by an alliance of underworld gangs, and how their own greed and lawless passions bring the criminals to inevitable destruction.

Never before has a novel told so truthfully what the real underworld is like.

In order to facilitate the computation of margins under the regulation of the Securities Exchange Act, the Boston Evening American now carries the low since July 1, 1933, instead of the low for the year. The Securities Exchange Act provides that until July 1, 1933, the lowest price at which a security has sold since July 1, 1933, shall be considered as the low price for the year. This provision is in effect from July 1, 1933, the Act provides that the lowest price in the preceding 36 months will form the basis for margin computation.

New York, Oct. 10.—The stock market drifted lower today, with losses running to more than a point in a few instances. Trading, though, tapered off to the point where total turnover barely reached the 100 million share mark, thereby minimizing the significance of the sell-off. All sections of the list worked lower, but there were no evidence of aggressive selling in any particular stock or group.

RAILROADS. God morning shares slipped off from the rest of the list with Southern down about 2 points. This was apparently due to the strength in the dollar and lower London gold price. Industrial shares moved down in sympathy with 1 point decline in American Can. United States Steel also showed an earlier loss and finished slightly lower. Railroad stocks were weaker from the opening. Auction, New York Central, Lackawanna and Southern Railway suffered losses running to nearly a point.

Consolidated Gas slipped fractionally and generally improved its utilities to work. American Telephone ran into offerings during the hour. Near a point but not reflected later. Oil divisions, specialties and metals were quiet but reflected the union with the rest of the list.

LOADING. Freight car loadings for the week ended Oct. 13 showed a gain over the previous week. This was about seasonal but less than that which was expected. The weekly 634,640 was 35,011 under the late 1933 week.

Financial observers were watching closely the meeting in Brussels here today of delegates from the gold standard nations. In some banking circles it was felt that the probable of the gold bloc might well depend upon the present conference.

While the recent decline of sterling in the foreign exchange market was said to be reflected in various influences, dealers here were inclined to attribute the fall of the pound's strength to continental fears that the gold standard countries are moving toward the brink of devaluation.

Freshly business brought cheering reports to Wall Street. American and Brazilian shares found the past week had witnessed the most vigorous general trade movements.

Creation of labor difficulties and quickening of industrial operations were noted as among the favorable aspects of current trends. The market of the week ended Sept. 29, 1934, was 35,011 under the late 1933 week.

December wheat fell about 2 cents before coming to the market. It opened to stem the downturn. Corn fell off 1 cent, further, but recovered slightly.

Rich Girls Dance With Insane Men

LONDON.—(Wash.)—Many of the rich girls have been dancing with insane men in the last days. In fact, they thought they were dancing with a mighty pretty stock prospect.

"I'm afraid," screams Joe Lewis, "that the girls can't be helped."

But the hard-headed business men were hearing from insane men about to be taken into the insane asylum for the treatment of insanity.

Falls as passing a stick into a meeting of munitions investigating committee.

"It seems there's just two kinds of men," reflects the business man, "the money makers and the husband makers."

HERE'S A LOAD OFF YOUR MIND (Continued last)

Q. AND A. DEPARTMENT
Dear Thoughtful Aunt Bella: Don't you think these revelations of what the armament manufacturers have been doing is simply terrible? I must admit you think it's simply awful and mean!

Ans.—It sounds pretty good to Aunt B. A. ("All in All") Bella

But after all, it might be quite a help to the country at large if all T. S. Senators were as busy with domestic problems as Harp.

WHY NOT SETTLE WITH BOTTLECAPS

As a conservative, I'm in favor of people paying for their debts. And as a conservative, I'm also in favor of the government making it possible for the people to pay their debts.—Senator Thomas, Oklahoma.

You owe me and I owe you—

Don't even say so. To settle debts long overdue That you owe me and I owe you—What will we use for money?

Aspirin tablets would be very fine: I could take yours, sir, and you could take mine.

Or why not exchange, without spilling hairs.

Our views and opinions on current affairs!

And when our debts are settled We'll relax, and then Economy is will tell us What to do next again.

But after all, it might be quite a help to the country at large if all T. S. Senators were as busy with domestic problems as Harp.
